

Media Contact: Susan Bernhardt

818.599.9512

missbehavetv@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Teen stars are best friends on and off screen

Trio set to debut in new teen online series Miss Behave

HOLLYWOOD, CA (May 4, 2010) How often in an actors career are they given the opportunity to work on a production with their off-screen best friends? For three stars of the highly anticipated web series Miss Behave, that dream is a reality. Starring as childhood besties, Tori (Jillian Clare - Days of Our Lives, Victorious), Dylan (Brett DelBuono - The Cleaner, Let Me In) and Danielle (Jenna Stone - Rock the House) these teens didn't need much coaxing to portray on screen best friends. Jillian shares. "As an actor, it was amazing because we didn't have to work on chemistry, it was already there for us." Jenna added "We've been best friends for a while and it was really comfortable – I can't wait to see what next season is like!"

The first season of Miss Behave wrapped mid-February and follows the lives of the Archer children; Tori, always the good girl, and the apple of her Daddy's eye, has discovered her wild side but gets more than she bargained for when she begins deceiving her childhood friends to cover up her exciting new alter ego. Older brother Billy has his own set of challenges, dealing with an overbearing mother, new found adult responsibilities and sexual identity issues.

Jillian added "It's funny because Brett's character (Dylan) is in love with my character (Tori) and Jenna (Danielle), is always heart broken because she's in love with Dylan." She continues "Tori is oblivious to all of it because she's off in her own world of lies with her new hot, bad-boy boyfriend Riley Clark." Jillian and Brett first met in early 2006 on the set of the short-lived FOX comedy, The Winner, when they portrayed the flashback young teens of the lead characters. Ironically, even then, his character was in love with Jillian's. They reconnected in the summer of 2007, and brought Jenna into the mix shortly thereafter, creating this dynamic best friend trio. "The friendship between the three of us was infectious and spread to all of the cast and crew; everyday was a blast to show up to set" added Brett.

Says creator and executive producer Susan Bernhardt, "Though our show is yet to debut, we are moving forward with pre-production of Season Two which is slated to shoot in August." She continues "The response following the release of the trailer has been phenomenal with many seasoned young actors coming forward expressing interest in joining our talented cast; moving ahead we have plans to bring on several recognizable Young Hollywood faces to our sophomore season of Miss Behave". As the series evolves and positions itself in the web world, look for a revamped website to unveil at <http://missbehave.tv> in the coming weeks, plus details about the full scale red carpet premiere party and other exciting announcements about the web series. Get ready to get hooked - Miss Behave is set to launch soon and claim its place in the online viewing habits of the Echo Generation and more!

#