Miss Behave earns “Outstanding Drama” accolade at LAWEBFEST

Teen drama directors and composers also recognized for achievements

HOLLYWOOD, CA (March 28, 2011) – Following a busy weekend of screenings, panels and fun, the Los Angeles Web Series Festival wrapped their festivities Sunday night by honoring numerous web series for their achievements in New Media including teen drama Miss Behave. Earning awards for Outstanding Directing in a drama were Jonathan Zimmerman and Patrika Darbo. They were joined by awards to Miss Behave composers, A DEUX, comprised of talented musicians Teo and Daniel Redwood, recognized for the original Miss Behave theme song plus Teo was honored again with lead Jillian Clare for their Outstanding Score. Rounding out the evening, Miss Behave was honored to receive an Outstanding Drama Series award presented to creator/executive producer Susan Bernhardt and her daughter, lead actress/producer Jillian Clare. “The first award that was called for Miss Behave was for Patrika; shortly after, they called another for Jonathan,” said Jillian Clare. “It was so exciting to accept for them, and then for our composers A DEUX. We were both thrilled for all of them!”

With numerous cast members present for the earlier afternoon screening including Jillian Clare, Brett DelBuono, Bianca Magick, Jacee Jule, Madisen Beaty and Bobby Preston, the two-part Miss Behave Season One finale episodes were shown during one of the afternoon screening blocks. “It was so interesting to share the Season One episodes with the crowd,” said creator Susan Bernhardt. “Our series has grown by leaps and bounds between seasons with the teens maturing so much over the year and the story becoming much more dramatic. Sometimes it's hard to believe we've only been on the web for nine months – what a whirlwind!”

Miss Behave tells the story of a Malibu girl growing up without much guidance from her mega-successful parents. In Season One, good girl Tori Archer discovered her wild side but faced more than she bargained for when she began deceiving her childhood friends to cover up her exciting new alter ego and bad boy Riley Clark. Season Two brought tragedy to Tori's life, with the death of her boyfriend and the sorrow that followed. As the season unfolded, we saw her mend fences with her best friends and meet a new boy, Australian teen heartthrob Noah. However, Tori continued to have problems as Riley's best friend Christian began an obsessive torment of Tori during her birthday party and Tasha (Riley's step-sister) blamed her for everything.

About LAWEBFEST

Created in 2010, the Los Angeles Web Series Festival was held March 25th-27th 2011 at the Stage 52 Theatre in the lower Miracle Mile section of Los Angeles. The festival is a one-of-a-kind opportunity to celebrate web shows and bring those involved in making them together, under one roof, in community, to network and exchange ideas and valuable information. Workshops and panels covering various aspects of working in this dynamic new medium were also held over the three-day event.
